Regina wheelchair basketball players Gregg Johnstone and Nikola Goncin are making a big contribution to the Canadian junior national team as it prepares in Germany for the IWBF world championships.

Johnstone led the team with 10 points as they lost their first exhibition game to the host Germans 59-37.

In a rematch, Goncin poured in 27 points while Johnstone had 15 as the Canadians lost 66-57.

The world championships began Monday and continue until July 14 in Paris.
