Theisen achieved a new personal best of 4,507 points to win the women's indoor pentathlon (comprised of 60m hurdles, high jump, shot put, long jump, and 800m).

Within the competition, she also set new indoor personal bests in the high jump with 1.83m and indoor 800m in a time of 2:14.50.

In the process, she broke the NCAA Record, University of Oregon school record, and Saskatchewan Athletics Open/Native Senior Women's indoor pentathlon record.

Theisen now looks to defend both her 2010 PAC-10 Conference and NCAA Indoor Championship titles in the pentathlon event. She has represented Canada at the World Championships, World Junior Championships, Pan Am Juniors, and the World Youth Championships.
